

Good news for international students living in Kyoto!

Need support? Let us help you!

- Reading and writing skills used in daily life
- Japanese customs of daily life
- Basic knowledge of Japanese culture
- Characteristics and uniqueness of Japanese food
- Necessary preparations and responses when finding a job in Japan

- I had an amazing international exchange experience.
- I got to experience different cultures up close.
- I learned a lot about cultural differences.
- I made some really meaningful connections.

If you are interested, please send the necessary information using the QR code.

URL: <https://forms.gle/xybtsYP6D3q1Cgsj7>

同志社大学

Mitsui Volunteer Network (Mitsui V-Net) is a non-profit volunteer organization consisting of alumni and employees of Mitsui Group companies. When international students want to learn about Japanese culture, economy, and society, Mitsui V-Net volunteers help them understand through interpersonal interaction.

URL: <https://www.mv-net.com/english/>